Hotel Chinzanso Tokyo Presents Dazzling Joys of Summer with Firefly Specials

Events, Dining and Accommodation Plans to Celebrate Fireflies' Return to the Chinzanso Garden

April 10, 2018, Tokyo – Hotel Chinzanso Tokyo, Fujita Kanko's iconic five-star flagship property, will offer special accommodation and dining plans to celebrate the firefly season from May 18th through July 3rd.

Fireflies have been honored in Japanese culture for over a thousand years as a symbol of the summer beauty. Although they are an extremely rare sight in Tokyo, Hotel Chinzanso Tokyo's lush botanical garden welcomes thousands of twinkling fireflies every year from late May to early July. Locals and tourists alike have marveled at the magical sight since 1954 when Fujita Kanko began hosting firefly viewings at their renowned Chinzanso garden.

Firefly cultivation is a ritual practiced by the hotel year-round. After fireflies lay eggs each summer, the hotel saves them in an incubator. In January, the larvae are returned to the garden's creek where they were laid. "We take this undertaking very seriously," says Hiroshi Izumi, the hotel's General Manager. "We invite local children to release larvae in the creek and invite them back in the summer. It gives us the greatest pleasure to see everyone's face lit up. We also want to maintain this Japanese culture for our international guests."

Accommodation Package: Private Firefly Viewing

Each night between May 24th and June 9th the hotel will have only one suite package available. Guests may choose from a view bath suite, hideaway garden suite or Japanese suite with a private firefly viewing from 23:00-23:30.
